Handler or Cutter? Handler

What could you contribute to this team? Describe your pivotal roles on a team. I'm kinda like J.D. Drew when he was with the Red Sox...five tool player (I do a lot of things) but not very good at any of them. I do have a habit of getting timely foot-blocks, though. And I'm comfortable with the ball in my hands.

What has frustrated you most on past teams? Poor attendance, crappy weather (looking at you midwest), cramming 10 people into a room at Days Inn when it would cost like 5 bucks more a night to do something better.

Why do you want to play with the Seattle Freeze?

I had fun last year, ready to do it again. Excited to see what we can accomplish.

Tell us something weird.

I have to choose just one thing?
I walked across Florida once, gulf coast to Atlantic ocean.
I'm all about weirdly specific and (occasionally) gruesome sports injuries. Last year I broke my thumb catching a Frisbee. I half ripped off my big toe along the joint once.

Season Availability

I might miss a few days in June, but otherwise I'll be around!
